Warm Greeting For Nixon At Airport Today

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (A) - President Eisenhower flew in from Panama today with a warm greeting for Vice President Nixon and the briefest of handshakes for Harold Stassen, his disarmament aide who announced a move last night to push Nixon off the Republican ticket.

Even before this tabuleau at the airport, Nixon's renomination had appeared to be nearly cemented. Nixon was the first to greet Eisenhower as the smiling President stepped down from his private plane, Columbine III, at National Airport at 8 a.m.

Twenty feet down a receiving line which included diplomats, Republican Congress members and government officials, Stassen was waiting with a broad smile on his

"Geat Job"

Eisenhower shook hands with everybody and Stassen remarked as he put out his hand, "Good morning. Congratulations on a great job down there."

In the background rose a chant of "We like Ike" from a group of young Republicans. Stassen had told a news conference yesterday that "in loyalty to President Eisenhower" he would work to replace Nixon on the GOP ticket this fall with Gov. Stassen said private polls had shown that an Eisenhower-Herter ticket would be 6 per cent stronger than an Eisenhower-Nixon combination. The added strength, he said, might mean the difference between Republican and Democratic control of Congress.

Gets Second Handshake

Eisenhower chatted momentarily with Nixon before climbing into a limousine for the trip to the White House. Photographers demanded another handshake and ough of these, I think.

And, in a solicitous tone, Nixon said he had noted how Eisenhower had had a busy time in Panama, including several hours of listening to speeches at the meeting of American presidents, Nixon offered this word of advice to the President:

"Take a little time off now." Eisenhower appeared fully rest-

SAY HIRING OF OUTSIDE MEN

WASHINGTON (P) - House investigators today criticized as too uncontrolled and possibly dangerous the present government practice of hiring outside consultants and experts.

A Government Operations subcommittee hit particularly at the temporary federal hiring of newsmen, suggesting this creates "governmental influence" over journal

It also alleged there is "lobbying" within the government by experts and consultants, and said there is evidence specialists have been employed for political reaseasons.

The Democratic-controlled subcommittee acknowledged that federal hiring of experts and consultants both with and without pay took place under past administrations, and it called "highly praisworthy" the basic objective of getting help from nongovernment specialists.

But it said 12,965 experts and consultants have been hired since Jan. 1, 1953, and that there are committees composed of persons from outside the government,

"Undue adherence to the philosophy of what is good for business is good for the country could result in the use of experts and consultants to perform functions which could and properly should be performed by regular full-time employes of the government," the subcommittee said.

Press, Radio, TV ... Without naming names, the congressmen termed "disturbing" what they called a federal agency 'perchant for employing 'experts and consultants' with newspaper, public relations, radio or television background in order to attain better "public understanding" of the agencies' objective and programs." They added:
